ONLINE JOINT WORKSHOP: Royal University of Law and Economics – Laboratoire PACTE Research Center

Monday, June 17th

2.00 PM: PHNOM PENH
9.00 AM: GRENOBLE & LYON

Registration is mandatory to join the Zoom, so please write to clement.berthou@univ-grenoble-alpes.fr before noon on June 16, 2024, Phnom Penh time.

This online workshop is part of the Tonle Sap Hubert Curien program successfully developed by RULE and Laboratoire Pacte.

The Tonle Sap Hubert Curien program, a joint initiative between the governments of France and Cambodia, aims to encourage reciprocal mobility and collaboration between researchers, fostering a sense of community and shared knowledge.

Laboratoire Pacte is a social sciences research center affiliated with the France National Centre for Scientific Research (CNRS), Grenoble Alpes University (UGA), and the Grenoble Institute of Political Studies (Sciences Po Grenoble).

The Royal University of Law and Economics is Cambodia's first higher education institution. It was founded in 1948, and in 2003, the Faculty of Law and Economics was reorganized as a university.

Laboratoire PACTE (Université Grenoble Alpes, CNRS & Sciences Po Grenoble) and the Royal University of Law and Economics (RULE) are excited to announce their upcoming joint workshop covering the Cambodian monetary context. This is a unique and exciting opportunity for you to join us online on June 17, 2024, at 9 a.m. Paris time/2 p.m. Phnom Penh time, to virtually meet with experts who analyze and stakeholders who actively shape the Cambodian monetary context.

This workshop will also represent an opportunity to unveil the roadmap for the upcoming two-year PHC Tonlé Sap research program between the MoEYS, the French Embassy in Cambodia, the Royal University of Law and Economics (RULE), and Laboratoire PACTE.
